

1. The first group of variables is the "demographic" group, which includes age, sex, and education. These variables are used to control for differences in the population that may affect the results. For example, older individuals may have different preferences for health care than younger individuals, and individuals with higher education may have better access to health care.

Douglas C. Butler

3683

[illegible]

INTERFERENCE SEARCHED
Class	Subclass	Date	Examiner
Searched all of
"Searched"
box	entries
		1/24/05	DS

[illegible]